

KOSHER FOOD DISCLOSURE

STATEMENT ABOUT UNPACKAGED FOOD

Name of establishment: _____ Date of disclosure: _____

We sell or serve only kosher meat and pareve food
We sell or serve no dairy

General Disclosure

We operate under rabbinical or other kosher supervision: Yes No

If "yes," look for more information about rabbinical supervision on a separate form.

We sell or serve only meat and pareve food that we describe as kosher: Yes No

About the meat, poultry, and fish that we describe as kosher

The meat and poultry that we describe as kosher is slaughtered under rabbinical or other kosher supervision, is tagged as kosher at the conclusion of the slaughter, and after slaughter is not mixed with meat and poultry not described as kosher: Yes No

We describe our kosher meat as "Glatt kosher" or "Glatt": Yes No

If "yes," this is what we mean by "Glatt kosher" or "Glatt":

Here is more information about deveining, salting, and other practices about the meat and poultry that we describe as kosher:

We sell or serve seafood only if it has or had fins and removable scales: Yes No

How we handle the meat and pareve food that we describe as kosher

We use separate utensils for meat and pareve food: Yes No

We use separate working areas for meat and pareve food: Yes No

We keep meat free from, and not in contact with:

Check all applicable

- pareve
- food not described as kosher

We keep pareve food free from, and not in contact with:

- meat
- food not described as kosher

Note to consumer: Maryland law does not make a determination as to whether a food is kosher; it simply requires that sellers of food disclose the reasons why they describe a food as kosher. All of the information and answers on this form are the responsibility of this establishment. If you want more information about how the establishment handles food that is described as kosher, ask someone who works here.