

BEFORE HIRING ANYONE TO ASSIST YOU, ALWAYS ASK:

- Whether the person is a licensed attorney (lawyer), an accredited representative, or an immigration consultant – by law, they are each only allowed to provide certain specific services;
- To see the person's credentials and a list of references (former clients) to contact;
- If you will be charged for a consultation appointment;
- How much you will pay for the consultant's assistance and how payment is set up;
- How long the process will take and the possible risks.

AN IMMIGRATION CONSULTANT SHOULD NEVER:

- Perform any legal services for you;
- Advertise as a notario or public notary, or pretend to be a lawyer;
- Promise special or favorable treatment from immigration officials;
- Ask you to sign papers that are blank, contain false information, or that you don't understand;
- Threaten your immigration status if you are unable to pay more money;
- Take your money without or before performing the promised service;
- File documents on your behalf;
- Ask you to leave your original documents (you should only leave the consultant with copies of your documents); or
- Ask you to pay money for blank government forms. Government forms are free and available at www.uscis.gov/forms.

AN IMMIGRATION CONSULTANT SHOULD ALWAYS:

- Provide you with a written contract in a language you understand that states (1) why you have hired the consultant and (2) how much money you will have to pay;
- Return all of your documents to you;
- Provide you with a receipt for any payment you make to the consultant.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS!

Be aware of people and businesses that try to fraudulently provide legal assistance without authorization.

Anyone offering legal assistance must be either a licensed attorney, an individual authorized to represent individuals in immigration matters, or a representative from an authorized nonprofit organization or clinic affiliated with a law school in Maryland.

ARE YOU A VICTIM OF IMMIGRATION CONSULTANT FRAUD?

You may have been a victim of immigrant consultant fraud if the person offering immigration assistance identified him or herself as a “notario,” “visa consultant,” or “licenciado.”

In the United States, a notary is NOT an attorney and may not provide you with immigration assistance or legal advice.
