Attorney General Frosh's Statement on Recent Decision in Purple Line Case

BALTIMORE, MD (July 19, 2017) – Maryland Attorney General Brian E. Frosh today released the following statement after the State's motion to stay was granted in the Purple Line litigation:

"We are very pleased with the Court order. It will allow construction of the Purple Line to commence and we will continue to do everything we possibly can to keep the Purple Line moving forward."
