Angela N.:

Good morning all! Happy wednesday!

Michele Honick:

Could I interject something?

Brenda Gruss:

Judge barbera issued order yesterday. Does that bear on this issue? Hard to read it on my phone!

Reena Shah:

Unfortunately, no

Does not extend moratorium

Here is judge barbera's order

Angela N.

Sure, I will reach out to them. :-)

Karen Anderson-Scott:

Michele, can you share with us what you sent to your network

Michele Honick:

Yes, it was a very brief email with the letter to Gov Hogan attached

I understood that my community contacts might not have totally congruent interests to those of the task force

My goal was to be put in contact with an advocacy contact within my friends' organization so that I could continue to network

Angela N.:

Agree with Ethan in that strategy of multiple modes of simultaneous advocacy

Reena Shah:

We can discuss in PREC tomorrow, but setting up the process of how we get communications out will be valuable regardless

Reena Shah:

Both deans are on the TF

You might, Franklyn :)

Michael Summers:

Are facebook live presentations recorded?

Angela N.:

Question to Shirley and Housing Committee? Do you already have an draft agenda of topics you desire to discuss for the townhall that we could view by any chance?

Reena Shah:

Collect questions beforehand when ppl can register

List for letter and marketing for FB live may be the same and overlap

Tamar Sarnoff:

I have to go to another meeting, please email me if I can help with anything!

Ethan Navarre:

Shirley, would you mind sharing your email in the chat so I can send you the meeting access info?

Reena Shah:

Did we get availability from the library

Are we thinking evening or during the day?

Angela N.:

Friday is just a suggested date... Not hard suggestion, whatever meets most people's schedule.
