

BRIAN E. FROSH, MARYLAND ATTORNEY GENERAL

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Media Contacts:
press@oag.state.md.us
410-576-7009

Baltimore County Man Charged with Sexual Abuse of a Minor

BALTIMORE, MD (April 5, 2022) - Maryland Attorney General Brian E. Frosh announced today that Neil Adleberg, 73, of Baltimore County, was indicted on the charges of sexual abuse of a minor, sexual solicitation of a minor and two counts of second-degree rape and attempted second-degree rape in 2013 and 2014.

Adleberg was the head wrestling coach at Mount Saint Joseph High school in the 1970's and returned as an assistant wrestling coach for the 2014-2015 season. The victim was not a student at Mount Saint Joseph High School. This prosecution stems from the Office's ongoing investigation into child sexual abuse associated with a school or place of worship.

"The victim in this case was a child that was abused and assaulted by Adleberg," said Attorney General Frosh. "We will prosecute to the fullest extent of the law those who prey on vulnerable victims."

Attorney General Frosh thanked Investigator John Sheridan, TFC Teresa Weathers, and Assistant Attorney General Elizabeth Embry. Attorney General Frosh also thanked the Maryland State Police and the Baltimore County State's Attorney's Office for their assistance.

A criminal indictment is merely an accusation of wrongdoing, and a defendant is presumed innocent until the State proves the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

If you have any information about this case or information about child sexual abuse, please email our Office at report@oag.state.md.us or call us at 410-576-6312.

<https://www.marylandattorneygeneral.gov/press/2022/040522.pdf>